★ Growing Bigger Hearts ★ ♡ Qamar & the Baker

Qamar is a little girl who lives in a village
famous for its pastries.
People from all over
town visit the bakery.

The baker is said to have magical fingers.
Every time he touches
dough, it becomes sweet!

Qamar dreams about becoming a baker because she loves cakes! Especially the rainbow cake full of colors.

She keeps some in her kitchen cabinet so she can eat them later.

A colorful illustration of a baker with a beard and a white cap, wearing a light green tunic and a blue apron. He is holding a large, round loaf of bread with both hands. He stands in a town square with a large wooden door in the foreground and a building in the background under a blue sky with clouds. The scene is bright and cheerful.

The baker was kind
and generous and always gave the people of the town a lot of pastries.

But soon, he became mean. The bigger and fuller his bakery became, the smaller and emptier his heart got.

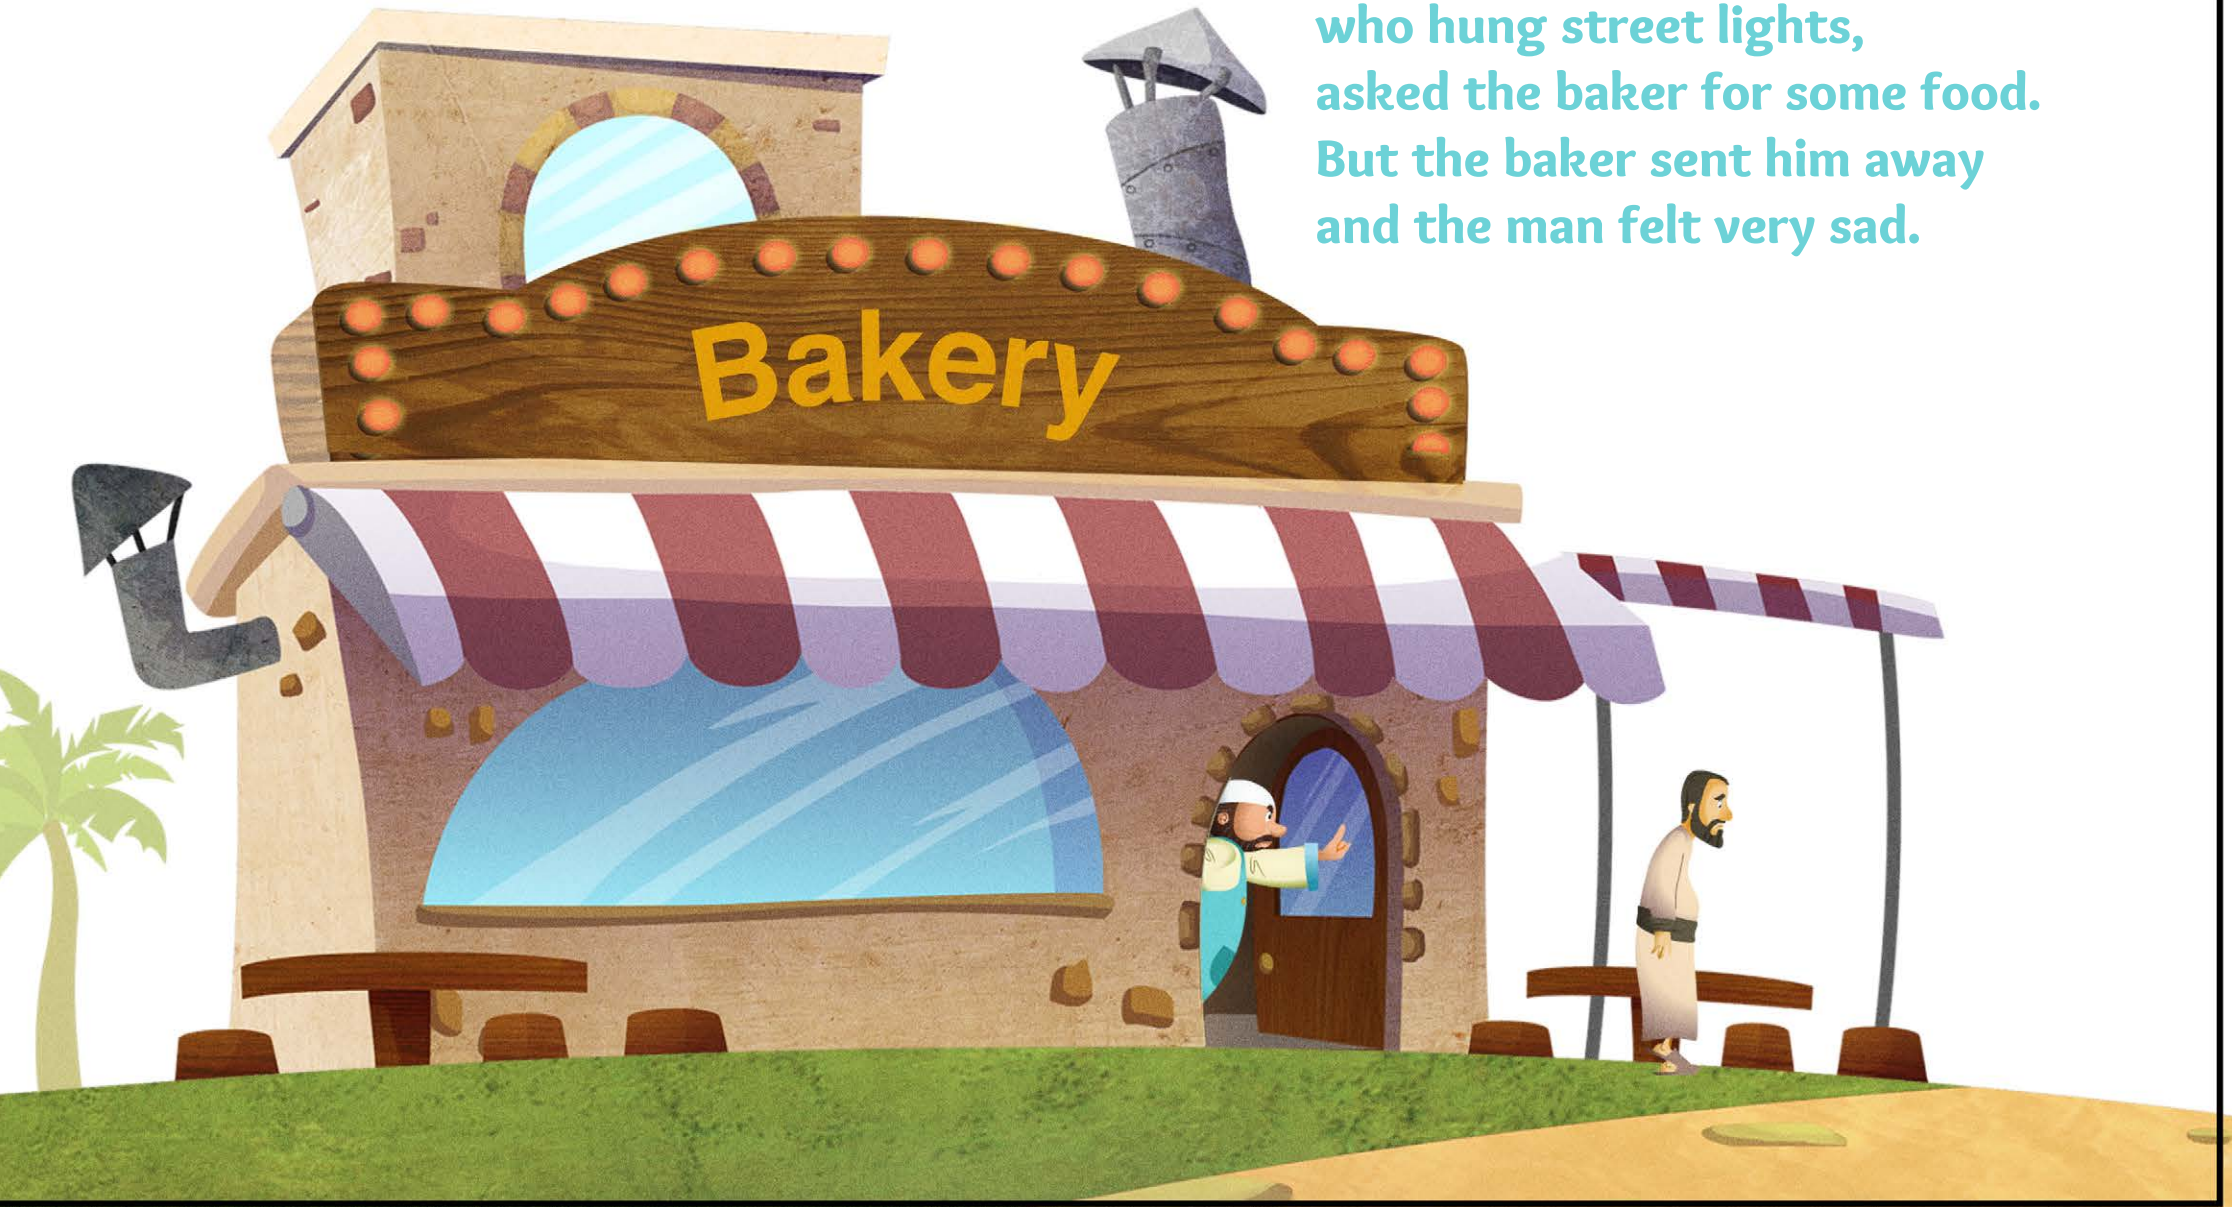

He wouldn't share any bread or cakes with the needy and would rather hide everything.

He'd say, "Someone will pay for the bread! Why should I give it for free?"

One day, a hardworking man who hung street lights, asked the baker for some food. But the baker sent him away and the man felt very sad.

When Qamar saw him,
she felt bad and went
to help him hang a light.

Until one day,
everything changed.
Every time the baker
made a cake, it would be bitter even though he added sugar.

And every time
he baked bread,
it would be cold even though it was fresh from the oven.

Nobody bought bread
from the baker anymore
and he felt alone.
He wished he could taste
his sweet pastries one more time.

Although Qamar heard him, she didn't tell him about the cakes she kept in her cabinet because she only had one left.

That night, Qamar couldn't eat the last cake or even sleep as she thought about the poor baker.

The next day,
she decided to give
the baker her last cake.
He felt very happy and thanked her.

But after taking a bite,
he walked out to the
man hanging lights
and offered the cake
to him.

Grateful, the man took a bite and offered the rest to a little girl.

And so, the cake went round and round until everyone in town had enjoyed its sweetness.

The baker looked around and remembered the joy of spreading happiness.

He went into his bakery with little Qamar and they started baking warm bread and sweet cakes.

They gave them to everyone! And together, they all shared a lot of love and kindness.

The End

The image features a blue gradient background with stylized clouds at the top. The clouds on the left are light blue, while the one on the right is a darker blue with a white, textured interior. The 'Kinder' logo is centered in the lower half of the image. The word 'Kinder' is written in a bold, sans-serif font. The 'K' is black, and the remaining letters 'inder' are red. A small registered trademark symbol (®) is located at the end of the word.
